

Three real river forms: structure and input clocks act together

Original classes and representatives retained; selected junction paths overlaid on the real complete networks.

Maps keep native orientation and scale bars with independent extents; orange marks the shared downstream reach. d-f: Controlled corridor responses. g-i: Points are selected real junctions, boxes are interquartile ranges; prescribed 50% mixing. Two sparse no-junction exclusions remain recorded.