

Confluence geometry and DOC mixture response

Five serial confluences in one network, sampled in summer and fall 2021. Width/depth summaries give each surveyed transect equal weight.

b: Symbols are three-position lateral means; bars are spatial ranges, not confidence intervals. Mixture weights are renormalized from branch flow. A lateral mean is not a flux-weighted concentration. Deviations alone do not establish DOC removal/production; fall geometry is not a summer measurement.